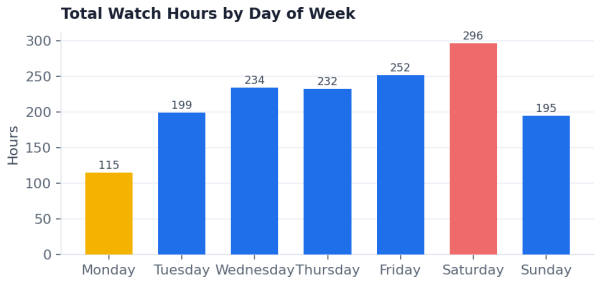
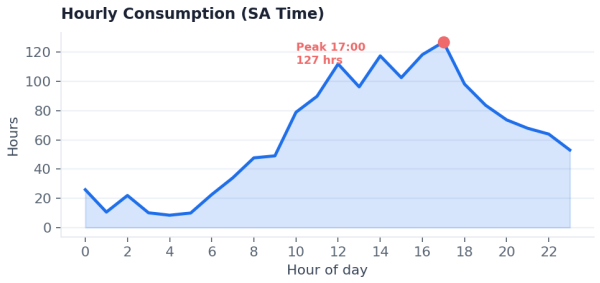
Consumption Patterns





Key insights

- Saturday is the peak viewing day (305+ hrs); Monday is the lowest — clear weekend skew.
- Evening prime-time (16:00 – 18:00 SA time) drives the heaviest consumption.
- Live sports (SuperSport, ICC Cricket) dominate watch hours — events drive tune-in.
- Average session length is short (~9 minutes) — content discovery and stickiness are key levers.
- Active viewers (4,080) represent 76% of the user base — large reactivation opportunity.

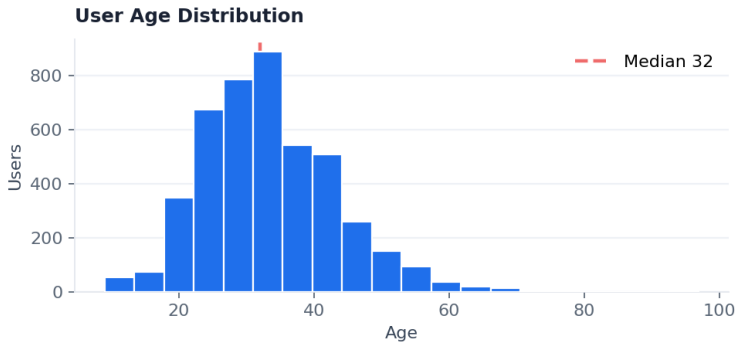
Audience Profile & Recommendations



Boosting low-consumption days

Mondays & Tuesdays show the lowest watch hours

- Monday Live Sports specials (replays + analysis).
- Tuesday Binge Night: full-season drops.
- Family slots 17-19h: Cartoon Network.
- Push notifications 30 min before prime-time.
- Themed weeknight collections curated by genre.

Initiatives to grow the user base

Acquisition + reactivation playbook

- Reactivate the 24% inactive base via win-back offers.
- Female-focused content bundles (gender skew is 81% male).
- Provincial expansion in NW, FS & NC (under-indexed).
- Referral program tied to social handles already captured.
- Loyalty tiers rewarding watch-hour milestones.
